About St. Jude

- Families never receive a bill from St. Jude for treatment, travel, housing or food – because all a family should worry about is helping their child live.
- Treatments invented at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital have helped push the overall childhood cancer survival rate from 20% to more than 80% since opening its doors 53 years ago.
- Because the majority of St. Jude funding comes from individual contributors, St. Jude has the freedom to focus on what matters most – saving kids regardless of their financial situation.

Meet Gunnar

When Gunnar was only 8 months old, his family learned he suffered from a soft tissue cancer called rhabdomyosarcoma. As a nursing student, his mother, Kristie, had aspired to work at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. But when she finally walked through the doors, it was in the hope of saving her own child's life.
