RETIREMENT PLANS & LIFE INSURANCE

Donating part or all of your unused retirement assets, such as your individual retirement account (IRA), 401(k), 403(b), pension or life insurance plan, is an excellent way to make a gift to St. Jude. It is important to remember that estate and income taxes can consume a large portion of the money remaining in tax-deferred accounts such as IRAs and other qualified retirement plans.

Naming St. Jude as the beneficiary of a 401(k), other qualified retirement plan or IRA may result in significant tax savings for your heirs. You can designate St. Jude as the sole beneficiary, or one of multiple beneficiaries, of the remaining assets.

RETIREMENT PLANS

If you are like most people, you probably will not use all of your retirement assets during your lifetime.

A retirement plan can be a tax-efficient and simple way of including St. Jude in your estate plan. The best method is to name a charity as a beneficiary on your plan's beneficiary designation form. Because charities do not pay income taxes on the donations they receive, distributions to charities will avoid being taxed as income. Your plan administrator can provide you with the appropriate forms.

GIVING FROM YOUR IRA

The IRA Charitable Rollover benefit is now permanent.

If you are above age 70½, you can make a contribution (up to $100,000 annually) transferred directly from your IRA account to a charity of your choice, like St. Jude. Your gift would count toward your required minimum distribution and it would not be considered taxable income for you.

You can call your IRA administrator to discuss a fund transfer. Please contact us if you would like a free sample distribution request letter.

LIFE INSURANCE

If you have a life insurance policy that you no longer need because of a change in your life circumstances, you can give a paid-up policy to St. Jude or other charity, or even a policy on which you are still paying premiums. There are two simple ways to set up a gift of life insurance.

- You can irrevocably designate St. Jude as the owner and beneficiary of your life insurance policy, and you may be entitled to a generous charitable income tax deduction.
- You can name St. Jude as an irrevocable beneficiary of your life insurance policy, but retain ownership of the policy itself. You can call or write to your insurance company to request a form to make this change of beneficiary.

Please see your legal and/or tax advisor for more information and to determine if a charitable gift of life insurance or a gift from a retirement plan is right for you.
