

You can help keep yourself and others from getting sick just by washing your hands. Here's how:

Wet your hands.

Apply soap and work up a good lather.

Scrub for at least 15 seconds or as you sing happy birthday or the ABC song.

Rinse your hands.

Dry your hands with a paper towel or a clean, dry towel.

Do this and make the germ leave!

